VOICES FROM NOWHERE

AydrA

music: Andrea Mastromarco and AydrA · lyrics: Mauro Pacetti and Mick Montaguti

You Pray! It is your time
Your life isn't worth a dime
You Stay! You've crossed the line
This land will drain your kind

Red sand
Will erase your way
Lost sea
Will claim its prey

Fading away taken in chains
And left to nowhere
Your voice swallowed in a cage
Lost voice to nowhere

Fading away taken in chains
Your voice swallowed in a cage
Lost voice to nowhere

Pain! Your flesh is no more
Your skin! Dried by salt
Limbs washed on the shore
No ground to hold your bones

Erased!
Is all that you made
A code
Is now your grave

Fading away taken in chains
Your voice swallowed in a cage
Lost voice to nowhere

Fading away taken in chains
Your voice swallowed in a cage
Lost voice to nowhere

Fear still tears you apart
Now that you are past the gate
Listen to the breath of heart
Just look you are enslaved

Carved where no light can reach
The exile ends where silence bleeds
Locked the door and drew the line
You made oblivion your design

Lost
Left to nowhere
Voice to nowhere

No names carved in stone and no faith left in bones
No breath still beneath and no soul left to keep
